

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1992 -- SEVENTY-SECOND LEGISLATIVE DAY

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1992

IN JOINT CONVENTION

D.A.R.E. RECOGNITION CEREMONIES

President Wilder called the Joint Convention to order.

Senator Darnell moved to dispense with the Senate Roll call.

Representative Purcell moved to dispense with the House Roll Call.

The Chief Clerk of the Senate read the Joint Resolution authorizing the Joint Convention.

President Wilder announced the entrance of the Honorable Ned McWherter, Governor of the State of Tennessee.

President Wilder recognized Senator Burks for welcoming remarks and introduction of officers and officer Trigg McNew of the Bristol Police Department and President of D.A.R.E. Officers Association.

President Wilder recognized Representative Ray Davis for welcoming remarks and thanking Sergeant Ron Bilbrey and the Department of Safety.

President Wilder recognized Representative Jere Hargrove for introduction of Officer Roy Cravens of Cookeville for remarks.

Officer Roy Cravens introduced Miss Amy Webb of Cookeville, National Winner of D.A.R.E. Essay Contest.

Senator Burks introduced Officer Sterling Hinton of Knoxville.

President Wilder recognized Representative Harry Tindell of Knoxville.

Representative Tindell introduced Officer Bob Wooldridge.

Officer Bob Wooldridge of Knoxville introduced Beaumont Elementary School of Knoxville for program by students and teachers.

Senator Burks introduced The Honorable Ned McWherter, Governor of the State of Tennessee for closing remarks.

President Wilder relinquished the gavel to Mr. Speaker Naifeh, as President of the Joint Convention.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1992 -- SEVENTY-SECOND LEGISLATIVE DAY

The purpose for which the Joint Convention was called having been accomplished, Mr. President Naifeh declared the Joint Convention dissolved.